

Scott Smith

Executive Director

Master Nonprofit Leadership & Management - Arizona State University

B.S. Business Administration, Marketing - University of Central Florida

Scott joined the Desert Voices team in June 2022. Prior to Desert Voices, Scott delivered life-changing experiences to children with critical illnesses at the world's largest wish granting organization, where he orchestrated 1,700 entertainment and celebrity-related wishes over 8.5 years. He found fulfillment in providing hope and joy to the children and families served by the mission. Scott also brings experience from the for-profit sector having worked for various sports teams, marketing agencies, and resorts within the Valley. He absolutely loves children and strives to build genuine relationships within the community.

Scott was raised in Boca Raton, Florida, and moved to Arizona in 2005. He is married to his wife, Alison, who serves teachers as a life and resilience coach. Scott and Alison have two young children, Camryn and Crosby. He enjoys acting as the head coach of Crosby's little league baseball team, taking Camryn to horseback riding lessons, attending live music events with Alison, and rooting on his favorite football team, the Cleveland Browns.
